

SOMEWHERE IN RIVER HEIGHTS.

TODAY.

"The more things
change, the more they stay the same"

...is a thing that people say.

I never know who these
"people" are, but y'know,
we all just sort of accept
that "people" know what they're talking about.

A mistake if you ask me.

Herd mentality. And you ask ME? The HERD is responsible for a lot of really bad crap.

Anyway, is it supposed to be a life philosophy
or just like...a blurb?

Taylor Swift said it.
I think. Or someone
she dated maybe.

Who can really know in the information
age? Everything is available all the time at the click of a SOMETHING. And what you find is limitless, but that means limitless crap too.

Makes it feel impossible to separate fact from fiction.

Me? I'm more of a "shark philosophy"
person myself.

Keep moving or die.

I mean, not to be dramatic or anything, it's just something I've personally found to be true.

WOULD IT KILL YOU TO STOP EATING WHILE I'M HOLDING YOU UP?

YOU'RE NOT SUPER-LIGHT AS IT IS.

After extensive research.
