NEW YORK BULLETIN

★★ FINAL ★★

SPIDER-DINO PLOT REMINDS CITY OF STATEN ISLAND

A terrible plot by some terrible lizards and notorious masked menace Spider-Man was foiled yesterday by The Avengers. Dino-men Sauron and Stegron, probably acting under orders of the arachnid anarchist, took control of Staten Island and transformed dozens of residents into dinosaurs. How long the bad guys occupied the island is still unknown. "Staten Island? Is that part of this city?" said Mayor DeBlasio when asked for comment.

Local witnesses, likely jumping to erroneous assumptions in the confusion, said that Spider-Man actually stopped the repugnant reptiles, with the help of what appeared to be mutant schoolkids. But since the wall-crawling whacko and his Homo Superior hooligans disappeared from the scene upon the Avengers' arrival, the only options are that they were escaping justice or kidnapped by some other duo of vainglorious villains. The truth is obvious.
