VORACIOUS -FEEDING TIME-

PREVIOUSLY...

Chef Nate Willner was forced to move back to his hometown of Blackfossil, Utah, after his restaurant exploded, killing his sister Sara and leaving him unmotivated and hollow. Working at the Javarado Café with childhood friend, Starlee, and living with his grandmother, it seems Nate's life has become a dead end. But when he unexpectedly inherits a time travel suit from his Great Uncle Tony that can transport him to the age of the dinosaurs, he gets a chance to turn his life around. Nate quickly discovers that dinosaurs are delicious and decides to open a diner in the present that secretly serves meat from the past! In the months that follow, Sara's Fork & Fossil has become the hottest restaurant in town.

Nate's diner has become a big success. Unfortunately that success has come at a cost. Nate's friend, Captain Jim, discovered they may be hunting dinosaurs in an alternate reality. Turns out he's right. In that dimension's distant future dinosaurs evolved into an advanced humanoid race called Saurians, and some of them have suddenly started to vanish from existence. After discovering anomalies in space/time, the Saurian FBI has dispatched two decorated dinosaur detectives, Gus Horncrasher and Owen Talonburg, to covertly investigate who's responsible for the disappearances. Last issue Gus and Owen apprehended Nate, dragging him into their future and leaving Jim for dead in the Cretaceous.

Back in Blackfossil, Nate's best friend and business partner, Starlee, is considering a move away from Blackfossil. And Nate's girlfriend, Jenna, is in town to find out where their relationship stands.
