

When a car accident left her orphaned, Faith Herbert was raised by her loving grandmother and found comfort in comic books, science fiction movies, and other fantastic tales of superheroes. In her teens she would discover her fantasies were reality when it was revealed she was a psiote – a human being born with the potential for incredible abilities. When the powers were activated, she discovered she had the ability to fly and a telekinetic companion field that allows her to carry objects with her mind. Faith then joined a group of fellow psiotes called the Renegades to stand against the forces of evil. She's since left her Renegade family behind to take on the world's challenges on her own. She may have a lot to learn about the superhero game, but if there's one thing she's always had, it's...

Faith

The story so far...

In her time away from being the crime-fighting-Zephyr, as well as from her day job as a reporter for the website Zipline, Faith Herbert spends her time playing games with her friends under the guise of Summer Smith!

... the nefarious cosplayer, Murder Mouse...

However, forces seek to ruin both Faith's life as Zephyr and her secret life as Summer! So far, Faith has dealt with Sidney Pierce, member of an alien race known as The Vine, the adorable-yet-telepathic cat, Dark Star...

... and even the celebrity Chris Chriswell (who Faith used to adore), each of whom hold a grudge against Faith, and would like nothing more than to see her fall once and for all...
