ALL-NEW INHUMANS

People across the globe — mutant, human, and Inhuman alike — have found it hard to cope with their changing world. So, in an effort to reassure the citizens of Earth, Crystal, sister of Medusa the Inhuman Queen, has been dispatched as New Attilan's Inhuman ambassador.

But one mission that persists involves the strange structures known as Skyspears. These obelisks have landed in seemingly random spots around the world. What purpose they serve and how they are connected to the Inhumans is unknown, but Crystal and her team are determined to find out.
