So, the other problem with Kashas?

Not the only one, mind you--but a big one.

It isn't how large they are.

It isn't the fangs or the claws or the damn extra arms.

It's the bloodlust.

And that's quite literally true. Our blood, human blood. The scent of it.

No.

They're addicts.

AGGGH!

A Kasha.

Yes, A Kasha.
Just the one.
Because that is certainly a thing that happens.

I really, really wish that was true.

Nope,
no more meals
today.

Arrrgh, bastard.

ROAAARR

Ooofff!

A little help?

"...there's never just one."
