

IT'S DISGUSTING.

I DO RECOGNIZE TRAITS YOU'D FIND
UNPLEASANT, SAM.
YOU DON'T HAVE TO LOOK.

IT WANTS TO EAT US.

I DON'T HAVE THE CAPACITY
TO DETERMINE ITS INTENT.

WHAT ARE YOU BASING
YOUR ANALYSIS
ON, ALEA?

MY EYEBALLS.

I CROSS-REFERENCED MY ZOOLOGICAL DATA. I CAN ONLY ASSUME THIS SPECIMEN IS INDIGENOUS.

IT'S FROM THIS WORLD.

WHAT DOES THAT MEAN?

LIFE. I KNEW IT.

WHAT'S IT DOING?

PLACE YOUR HAND ON THE GLASS.

IT'S VIBRATING.

I'M ABLE TO PERCEIVE THE LOW RUMBLINGS. THEY'RE COMPLEX, BUT PATTERNED.

PATTERNED?

I CAN SORT THE PATTERNS INTO DATA SETS, WHICH I CAN THEN ATTEMPT TO TRANSLATE INTO SPOKEN LANGUAGE.

WOULD YOU LIKE ME TO TRY?
