THE AEROSMURF

by Peyo

Do you remember the Flying Smurf? (1) Do you think he's forsaken his idea of rising up into the sky? Well, no! He's still thinking about it...

Ah! Icarus! What a lovely dream!

When suddenly, that morning...

Why, yes! How come I didn't smurf of that sooner?

I'll need Handy Smurf's help.

Handy Smurf, you have to smurf me a hand-to-smurf machine that'll smurf me into the smurf...

Hold on... I'll make you a blueprint...

Mmm, yeah... in theory, it ought to smurf, but I'd need some light wood, canvas, leather, rubber, screws, springs...

I'll look for all that!

And late into the night...

When will that racket be over?

(1) From THE SMURFS #1, of course!
