

Marshall Islands.

...missing fishing trawler was found yesterday, with all crew members alive and well. The crew had been lost at sea for nearly three

The seamen, incredibly, claim they were saved by a mermaid, who pulled their derelict ship to shore with the help of dolphins

...were also provided food by a flock of rogue seagulls until a rescue team was able to reach them...

Their story is currently being investigated...

...but experts attribute the talk to delirium after weeks at sea with limited supplies

NEW MGMT FIELD GUIDE. 1.4. The key to success is going to be decentralization. Every major city will have an isolated cell that is completely autonomous.

NEW MGMT FIELD GUIDE 1.5. Lone agents will only be tolerated in the short term and should be constantly on the lookout for their companion agent.

NEW MGMT FIELD GUIDE. 1.6. The Management is susceptible to corruption by large groups of agents, as well as lone agents.

NEW MGMT FIELD GUIDE. 1.7. Strong personal relationships are encouraged to avoid paranoia and feelings of isolation.
