There's a lot of things I hate about this city.

The smell.
The filth.
The noise.

And the @##%& whisky. But none of that bothers me more than eggs.

Meaning you can't get 'em. Bacon neither.

All I want is to wake up one morning with two sunny-side-ups and a plate of crispy bacon.

But it's all outlawed here so that ain't going to happen any time soon. Not as long as I live in this city...

New Quack City.

...full of animals.

Another one, Curt. And don't be so stingy this time.

Five big chrome reasons you're gonna pay me what you owe.

You hear that, Connors? Everyone seems to be interested in me and money they seem to think I have.

Oh, you better have it, or you're about to have a very long, bad day!

Oh, my day is already as bad as a day can get, Toomes.
