

People know me as Carter Hall,
archaeologist and adventurer.

Friends--good friends-- know I'm also Hawkman.

For reasons I don't yet understand, I've spent thousands of years
reincarnating across time and space. There's so much I don't remember.

However, I know I've fought many things.

A ghostly highwayman.
A thief of shadows.
A lion-man.

This week alone, I battled a gargantuan gorilla statue and even seemingly slipped through time to fight one of my own past selves.

*But I don't recall ever fighting a Tyrannosaurus rex.*
