

DEADPOOL VERSUS THE PUNISHER

The man who manages DEADPOOL's money is known as THE BANK, an accountant and family man whom Wade has known for years. THE PUNISHER is on the trail of the Bank, who coincidentally happens to be a money launderer and financial consultant to organized crime the world over.

When DEADPOOL and THE PUNISHER crossed paths at The Bank's home, the accountant's wife and son ended up dead. As the fight continued, Frank shot Wade in the head—and the merc woke up with no memory of the feud. Frank discovered that The Bank's wife had faked her death to escape the country—and her husband, whose behavior has become increasingly dangerous—with her son. The apparent death of The Bank's family hasn't slowed him down—though his financial records have mysteriously gone missing, The Bank continued to assure his villainous clientele that their money was as safe as ever. After Wade helped The Bank's family flee, Frank did what he does best: blew out Wade's brains, messing with his memories again...
