

Flash Museum. 25th Century.

Excerpted from Eobard Thawne's foreword to "The Life and Times of the Flash, the World's Greatest Hero."

I used to dream about meeting him. Barry Allen. The Flash.

AH!

GET OUT OF HERE, IRIS!

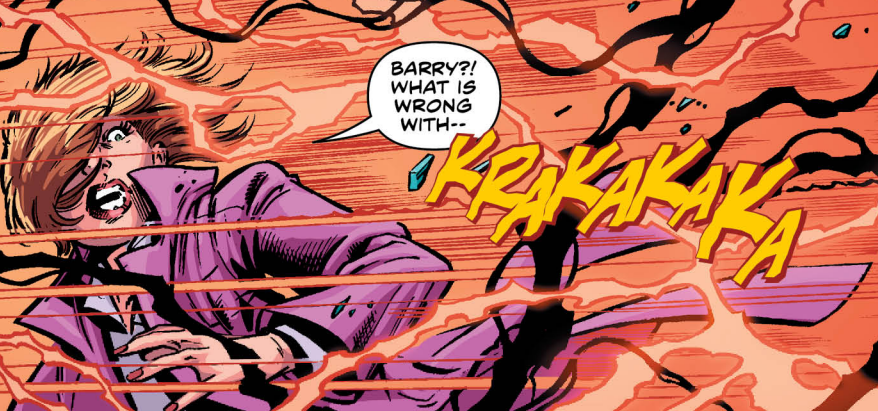

I'd write little stories in my head about the connection we'd share.

BARRY?! WHAT IS WRONG WITH--

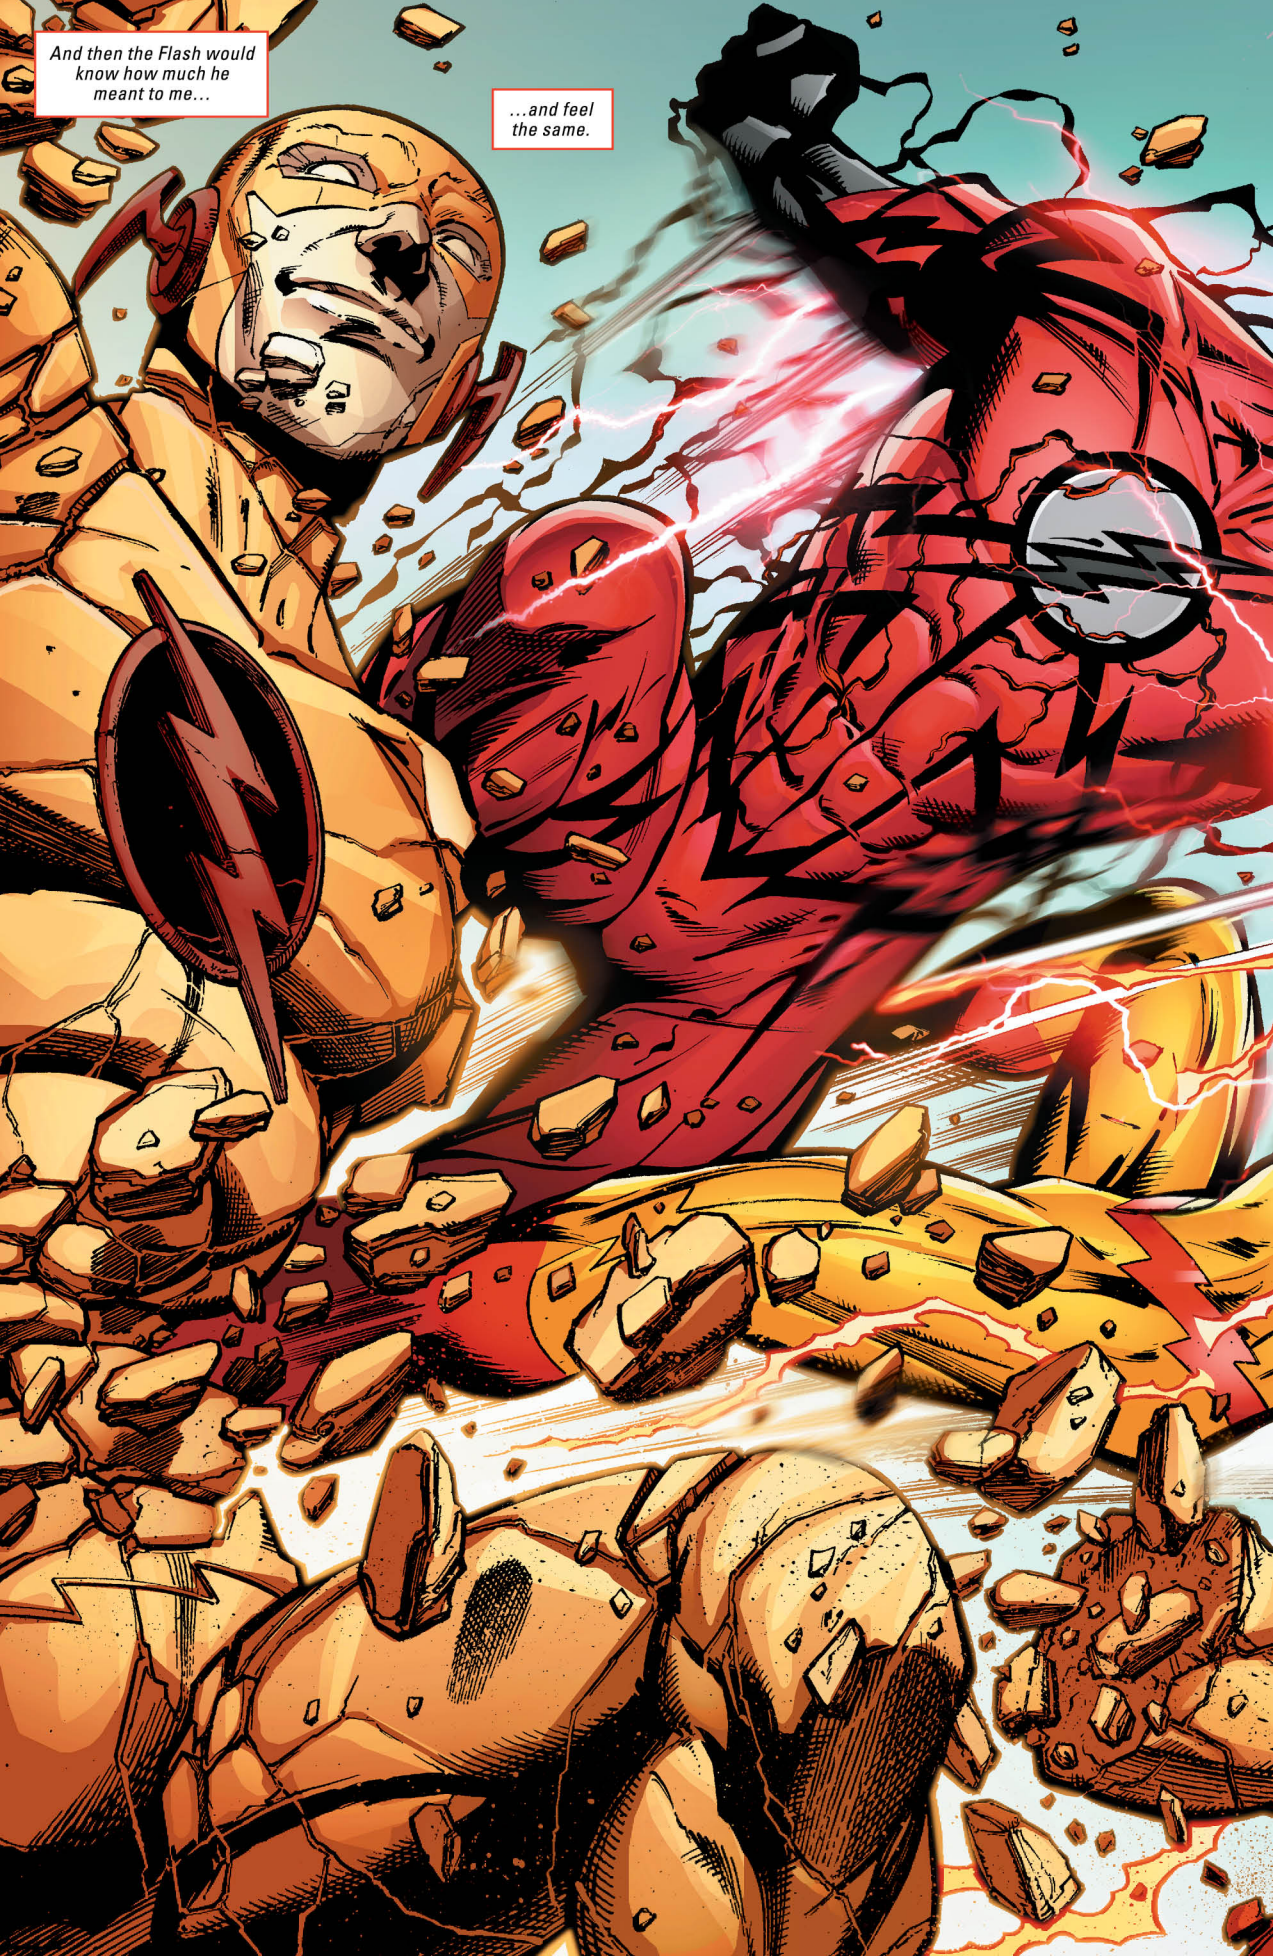

KRAKAKAKA

That he would see how alike we were...

And then the Flash would know how much he meant to me...

...and feel the same.

LOVE
THE NEW YOU,
BARRY!

YOU'VE ALWAYS BEEN MY BIGGEST INFLUENCE...

BOOM

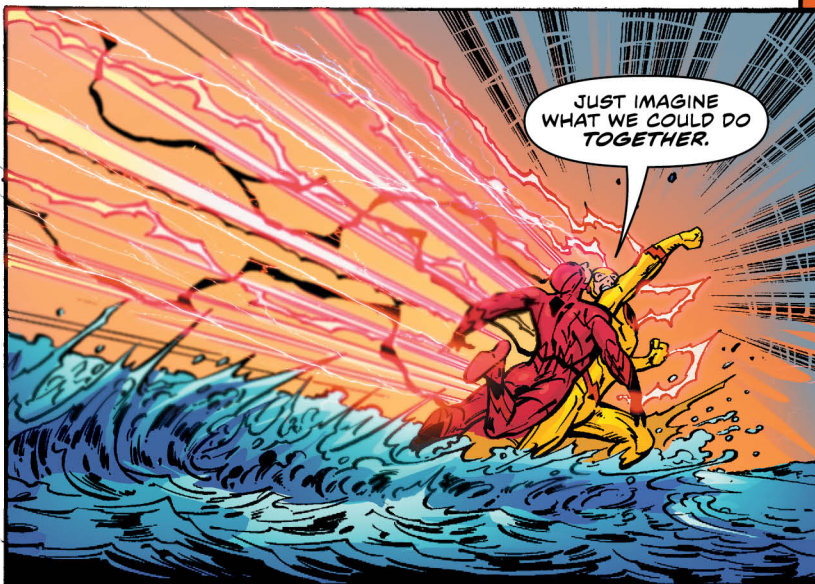

...IT'S GREAT TO SEE THAT I COULD RETURN THE FAVOR!

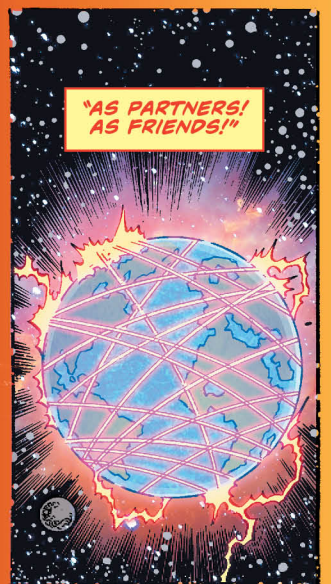

NOW THAT YOU'RE ONE WITH MY NEGATIVE SPEED FORCE, YOU CAN DITCH THE LOSER SIDEKICKS!

"YOU KNOW WHAT I'M CAPABLE OF AS REVERSE-FLASH. YOU'VE SEEN ME IN ACTION."

JUST IMAGINE WHAT WE COULD DO TOGETHER.

"AS PARTNERS! AS FRIENDS!"
