

SHA DOW MAN®

Bonded to a loa, an ancient voodoo spirit, Jack Boniface is Shadowman - the guardian between the living world and what lies beyond.

Hoping to thwart a plot by the organization known as the Brethren to resurrect the evil Master Darque, Jack and his companion, Alyssa Myles, raced to secure Darque's remains, currently in the secret lair of Darque's twin sister, Sandria - the necromancer that first bound the Shadow Loa to the Boniface family lineage. Sandria Darque welcomed Jack and Alyssa, offering to unbind the Shadow Loa from Jack's soul, but the two quickly uncovered her sinister motives: to use her brother's remains to unlock the gates of the mystical museum called Lyceum. During their struggle, Sandria managed to separate Jack from the Shadow Loa, leaving him powerless and the Loa caged. Summoning his last ounce of strength, Jack freed the Shadow Loa, allowing the two to face Sandria together...
