

HIGH EARTH ORBIT

It was difficult enough, seeing the Crash tear society apart on the surface below. But with a scientific detachment and the luxury of distance, the crew coped.

But now the surface was coming to them.

...HAS TO BE
FIFTY MILES LONG...

...WHERE DID IT COME FROM...?

...GOING TO MISS US,
THANK GOD...

...MAKE SURE
EARTH IS GETTING EVERYTHING WE'RE SEEING...

Mission control was consumed by the sea
some twelve minutes later.
