Can't Buy Me Love

It would be useless to tell you the kind of stress I'm dealing with! 76% of men are stressed by their marriage. Me, I'm part of the 17.5% of men who are extremely stressed by it.

Sleeping pills and late night television do little for my insomnia. I usually end up falling asleep around 3 in the morning listening to some good old Harry Nilsson.

So, Manu, when are you going to give us your wedding registry?

You should've brought it here! There's plenty of trinkets here you could redecorate with. A leatherbound copy of the complete Lucky Luke, a plaque about the Seven Wonders, a birdcage!

Everything in its own time. First he has to endure his weekend of meditation about the importance of marriage and their union under God.

Oh, right! An exciting schedule of prayer and sexual abstinence with the Priest. About as exciting as a Sunday in Paris!

Maybe, but I've been getting mine for 17 years, instead of the occasional lay here and there like you!

All this, just so your grandchildren can look back on the white album of your wedding!

Emily wants a white wedding, so I have to follow the rituals...

Manu, I never expected to find you among the few men who advocate for marriage as a union between two people, blessed by the Christian Church...

...But rather as part of the majority of people who think marriage is a necessary step in their romantic relationships for fear of it all falling apart!

Sure, keep joking!

I Feel Fine
