is for Amps

Instead of bricks, doomsters build their houses out of amps (preferably Orange Rockerverbs or Verellen Meatsmokes), in order to sustain a thick wall of sound.

B is for Bong

Graced by the blessings of the dark one, the bong is a certified ritualistic instrument used for mind alteration, shamanistic meditation and other western-friendly countercultural New Age marketing fads.

A large, bold, black letter 'G' in a stylized, calligraphic font. The letter has a thick stroke and a decorative, curved tail that loops back towards the bottom.

is for Ghurches

Despite their malicious ostentation, doomsters are not church burners. On the contrary, they appear to take a liking towards them, cathedrals in particular, and enjoy wearing crosses at times.

is for Draid

Ideally, a doomster's life is surrounded by magic herbs. Hence, every doomster's wet dream is to become a druid. Or meet one. Or at least write a song about one.
