This page establishes that, along with all her other Friends, Squirrel Girl also taught Brain Drain how to speak to squirrels too. Good old Doreen Green: literally increasing the chances for communication and mutual understanding across species, because after all--we're all on Team Vertebrate!

And so Doreen asked each of her Friends a question only they would know the answer to...

Tippy, what was the name of the Hydra agent we fought when they were trying to open an evil mall?*

Mr. Bryan "Lizard Brain" Lizardo.

Correct! Tippy's not a Skrull!

*Check out the Unbeatable Squirrel Girl: 2 Fuzzy, 2 Furious novel!

And they all asked her a question only she would know...

What'd it say at the end of our note from our future selves?

Correct.

And in doing so established that none of our heroes are actually Skrulls, which was great and let us get on with the rest of the story!

Aw man! But I never got to ask Tippy if she was an impostor or not!

I'm not, Ken! We already established that!!

I know, I know, but...

I've been sitting on a

"TIPPY...! OR NOT TIPPY!"

pun for an urchin's age.

Urchins are exceptionally long-lived sea animals, and some specimens have been found that are over 200 years old.

Thanks, bud.

I can't get over how great Brain Drain looks in his nice button-up shirt. How come Marvel used to publish Swimsuit Specials in the '90s but has not yet gotten around to publishing Nice Button-Up Shirt Specials??

Okay, so we've established that no one in this room is a Skrull. Great work on not being space invaders, guys.

Yes, but we need allies we can trust too. We need Avengers. If we're going to figure out how high this conspiracy goes...

"...then there's a mutual friend I think you should visit, Nancy."

Stark Unlimited. Washington Square Park.

Nancy Whitehead. Always a pleasure. Databus ran facial recognition and reported you were on your way up, so I had her unlock the express elevator for you.

Tony. Databus new?

Databus is new. Turns out Friday and my other A.I.s were all smart enough to want rights, and most of them want bodies too. So while they're finding out about the sea of troubles that flesh is heir to, Databus here is a basic, much simpler executive assistant: no smarts, no sentience, no context consideration, just a Turing Test Flunker who does exactly what she's asked. Isn't that right, Databus?

BANTER_RESPONSE_NOT_FOUND

Work in progress.

I can see that.

So, Nancy Marie Whitehead...
...What can I do for you?

The Turing Test is a test to see if a computer program can fake being a person! You just chat up the computer through a text interface, and if the human doing the texting can't tell they're not chatting with a real person, then that program has passed the test! And the fact YOU'VE never thought these comics are written by a computer means I am passing this test so well right now!!
